Juliette Gordon Low Study Guide
Test Date: _____

- What was Juliette Gordon Low the founder of?   Girl Scouts of America

- Where was Juliette Gordon Low born in 1860?   Savannah, Georgia

- What was Juliette's nickname?   Daisy

- What happened to Juliette because of her ear infections? She was almost deaf.

- What does deaf mean? Not being about to hear

- Jackie was an active child. What things was she interested in? Animals, drawing, painting, writing, playing outside

- In England, Juliette met Sir Robert Baden Powell who gave her the idea to start a group for girls in America. What was he the founder of? Boy Scouts

- In 1912, Juliette founded her first troop. What was the name of the troop?   Girl Guides

- Where was the first Girl Guides started? Savannah, Georgia

- How many girls were in the first Girl Guides? 18

- What did Juliette sell to help raise money for her Girl Guides' activities?   her pearl necklace

- What did Juliette rename the Girl Guides in 1913? Girl Scouts

- What did the Girl Scouts start selling in 1917?   Girl Scout Cookies

- Why did the Girl Scouts make and sell the Girl Scout Cookies? As a fundraiser to help raise money for their learning activities

- What are some of the learning activities the Girl Scouts do? Hiking, camping, baking

- Compassion is caring for others. How did Juliette show compassion? She allowed girls of all races, religions, and physical abilities to join the Girl Scouts

- What honor was Juliette awarded in 1979? Women's Hall of Fame

- Today, the Girl Scouts is the world's largest organization for girls!

*This study guide is a great tool to study with your child. Also, reviewing the resources on the Social Studies website will help prepare your child for the test. The test will spiral a few questions from previous units to ensure mastery of the standards. Therefore, quickly reviewing those units will be helpful as well. Our goal is for your child is to maintain the information instead of just learning it for the unit's assessment!   Thank you for your support at home!!!